Published by Authority.

From Thurſday December 3, to Saturday December 5, 1795.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

For granting the Diſtribution of Prizes taken from the Subjects of the United Provinces ſubſequent to the Fifteenth Day of September, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Ninety-five, the Date of His Majeſty's Order in Council for granting General Reprizals againſt the Ships, Goods and Subjects of the ſaid United Provinces.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by Our Order in Council, dated the Fifteenth Day of September laſt, We have ordered that General Reprizals be granted againſt the Ships, Goods and Subjects of the United Provinces, ſo that as well Our Fleets and Ships, as alſo all other Ships and Veſſels that ſhall be commiſſionated by Letters of Marque or General Reprizals, or otherwiſe, by Our Commiſſioners for executing Our Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, ſhall and may lawfully ſeize all Ships, Veſſels and Goods belonging to the ſaid United Provinces, or any Perſons being Subjects thereof, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the ſaid United Provinces, and bring the ſame to Judgment in any of Our Courts of Admiralty within our Dominions; We, being deſirous to give due Encouragement to all Our faithful Subjects, who may have lawfully ſeized any ſuch Ships, Veſſels or Goods, ſubſequent to the ſaid Fifteenth Day of September laſt, or who ſhall hereafter ſeize any ſuch Ships, Veſſels or Goods, and having declared in Council Our Intentions concerning the Diſtribution of all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes and Reprizals of all ſuch Ships and Goods as aforeſaid, which, ſubſequent to the ſaid Fifteenth Day of September, 1795, have been, or hereafter, during the preſent Hoſtilities, ſhall be ſeized as aforeſaid, do now make known to all Our loving Subjects, and all others whom it may concern, by this Our Proclamation, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, that Our Will and Pleaſure is, that the neat Produce of all Prizes taken as aforeſaid, ſubſequent to the ſaid Fifteenth Day of September laſt, or which ſhall hereafter be taken as aforeſaid, the Right whereof is inherent in Us and Our Crown, be given to the Takers, (ſave and except the Produce of ſuch Prizes as are or ſhall be taken by Ships or Veſſels belonging to Our Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms or Exciſe, the Diſpoſition of which We reſerve to Our further Pleaſure) but ſubject to the Payment of all ſuch or the like Cuſtoms and Duties as the ſame are now or would have been liable to if the ſame were or might have been imported as Merchandize; and that the ſame may be ſo given in the Proportion and Manner hereinafter ſet forth; that is to ſay, That all Prizes taken by Ships and Veſſels having Commiſſions of Letters of Marque and Reprizals, (ſave and except ſuch Prizes as are or ſhall be taken by the Ships or Veſſels belonging to Our Commiſſioners aforeſaid) may be ſold and diſpoſed, poſed of by the Merchants, Owners, Fitters and others to whom ſuch Letters of Marque and Reprizals are granted, for their own Uſe and Benefit, after final Adjudication, and not before. And We do hereby further order and direct, that the neat Produce of all Prizes, which are or ſhall be taken as aforeſaid by any of Our Ships or Veſſels of War, ſhall be for the entire Benefit and Encouragement of Our Flag Officers, Captains, Commanders and other Commiſſioned Officers in Our Pay, and of the Seamen, Marines and Soldiers on Board Our ſaid Ships and Veſſels at the Time of the Capture, and that ſuch Prizes may be lawfully ſold and diſpoſed of by them and their Agents, after the ſame ſhall have been to Us finally adjudged lawful Prize, and not otherwiſe.

The Diſtribution ſhall be made as follows; the Whole of the neat Produce being firſt divided into Eight equal Parts.

The Captain or Captains of any of Our ſaid Ships or Veſſels of War, who ſhall be actually on Board at the Taking of any Prize, ſhall have Three Eighth Parts; but in caſe any ſuch Prize ſhall be taken by any of Our Ships or Veſſels of War under the Command of a Flag or Flags, the Flag Officer or Officers being actually on Board, or directing and aſſiſting in the Capture, ſhall have One of the ſaid Three Eighth Parts, the ſaid One Eighth Part to be paid to ſuch Flag or Flag Officers in ſuch Proportions and ſubject to ſuch Regulations as are hereinafter mentioned.

The Captains of Marines and Land Forces, Sea Lieutenants and Maſter on Board, ſhall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongſt them; but that every Phyſician appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to a Fleet or Squadron of Our Ships of War, ſhall, in the Diſtribution of Prizes which are or ſhall be taken as aforeſaid by the Ships in which he ſhall ſerve, or in which ſuch Ship's Company ſhall be entitled to ſhare, be claſſed with the Sea Lieutenants with reſpect to the ſaid One Eighth Part, and be allowed to ſhare equally with them, provided ſuch Phyſician be actually on Board at the Time of taking ſuch Prizes.

The Lieutenants and Quarter-Maſters of Marines, and Lieutenants, Enſigns and Quarter-Maſters of Land Forces, Secretaries of Admirals or of Commodores, with Captains under them, Boatſwains, Gunners, Purſer, Carpenter, Maſters Mates, Chirurgeon, Pilot and Chaplain on Board, ſhall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongſt them.

The Midſhipmen, Captain's Clerk, Maſter-Sailmaker, Carpenter's Mates, Boatſwains Mates, Gunner's Mates, Maſter at Arms, Corporals, Yeomen of the Sheets, Cockſwain, Quarter-Maſters, Quarter-Maſters Mates, Chirurgeon's Mates, Yeomen of the Powder-Room, Serjeants of Marines and Land Forces on Board, ſhall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongſt them.

The Trumpeters, Quarter-Gunners, Carpenter's Crew, Stewards, Cook, Armourer, Steward's Mate, Cook's Mate, Gunſmith, Cooper, Swabber, Ordinary Trumpeter, Barber, Able Seamen, Ordinary Seamen, and Marines, and other Soldiers, and all other Perſons doing Duty and aſſiſting on Board, ſhall have Two Eighth Parts, to be equally divided amongſt them.

Provided that if any Officer being on Board any of our Ships of War at the Time of taking any Prize ſhall have more Commiſſions or Offices than one, ſuch Officer ſhall be entitled only to the Share or Shares of the Prizes, which, according to the above mentioned Diſtribution, ſhall belong to his ſuperior Commiſſion or Office. And We do hereby ſtrictly enjoin all Commanders of Our Ships and Veſſels of War taking any Prize, as ſoon as may be, to tranſmit, or cauſe to be tranſmitted, to the Commiſſioners of Our Navy, a true Liſt of the Names of all the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers and others who were actually on Board Our Ships and Veſſels of War under their Command at the Time of the Capture; which Liſt ſhall contain the Quality of the Service of each Perſon on Board, and be ſubſcribed by the Captain or Commanding Officer, and Three or more of the Chief Officers on Board. And We do hereby require and direct the Commiſſioners of Our Navy, or any Three or more of them, to examine, or cauſe to be examined, ſuch Liſts by the Muſter Books of ſuch Ships and Veſſels of War, and Liſts annexed thereto, to ſee that ſuch Liſts do agree with the ſaid Muſter Books and annexed Liſts, as to the Names, Qualities, or Ratings of the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers and others belonging to ſuch Ships and Veſſels of War, and, upon Requeſt, forthwith to grant a Certificate of the Truth of any Liſt tranſmitted to them, to the Agents nominated and appointed by the Captors to take Care and diſpoſe of ſuch Prize; and alſo, upon Application to them, (the ſaid Commiſſioners) they ſhall give or cauſe to be given to the ſaid Agents all ſuch Liſts from the Muſter Books of any ſuch Ships of War, and annexed Liſts, as the ſaid Agents ſhall find requiſite for their Direction in paying the Produce of ſuch Prizes, and otherwiſe ſhall be aiding and aſſiſting to the ſaid Agents in all ſuch Matters as ſhall be neceſſary. We do hereby further will and direct, that the following Regulations ſhall be obſerved concerning the One Eighth Part herein before mentioned to be granted to the Flag or Flag Officers, who ſhall actually be on Board at the taking of any Prize, or ſhall be directing or aſſiſting therein: Firſt, That a Flag Officer, Commander in Chief, when there is but One Flag Officer upon Service, ſhall have to his own Uſe the ſaid One Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by Ships and Veſſels under his Command: Seeondly, That a Flag Officer, ſent to command at Jamaica or elſewhere, ſhall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by Ships or Veſſels employed there before he arrives at the Place to which he is ſent, and actually takes upon him the Command. Thirdly, That when an inferior Flag Officer is ſent out to reinforce a ſuperior Flag Officer, at Jamaica or elſewhere, the ſuperior Flag Officer ſhall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by the inferior Flag Officer, before the inferior Flag Officer ſhall arrive within the Limits of the Command of the ſuperior Flag Officer, and actually receive ſome Order from him. Fourthly, That a chief Flag Officer returning Home, from Jamaica or elſewhere, ſhall have no Share of the Prizes taken by the Ships or Veſſels left behind to act under another Command. Fifthly, That if a Flag Officer is ſent to command in the Out-Ports of this Kingdom, he ſhall have no Share of the Prizes taken by Ships or Veſſels which have ſailed from that Port by Order from the Admiralty. Sixthly, That when more Flag-Officers than One ſerve together, the Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by any Ships or Veſſels of the Fleet or Squadron, ſhall be divided in the following Proportions, viz. If there be but Two Flag Officers, the Chief ſhall have Two Third Parts of the ſaid One Eighth Part, and the other ſhall have the remaining Third Part; but if the Number of Flag Officers be more than Two, the Chief ſhall have only One Half, and the other Half ſhall be equally divided amongſt the other Flag Officers. Seventhly, That Commodores with Captains under them ſhall be eſteemed as Flag Officers with reſpect to the Eighth Part of Prizes taken, whether commanding in Chief or ſerving under Command. Eighthly, That the Firſt Captain to the Admiral and Commander in Chief of Our Fleet, and alſo the Firſt Captain to Our Flag Officer appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to command a Fleet or Squadron of Twenty Ships of the Line of Battle, and alſo the Firſt Captain to Our Flag Officer appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to command a Fleet or Squadron of Fifteen Ships of the Line of Battle (provided ſuch laſt mentioned Fleet or Squadron ſhall be compoſed of His Majeſty's own Ships,) ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Flag Officer, and ſhall be intitled to a Part or Share of Prizes as the Junior Flag Officer of ſuch Fleet or Squadron. And We do hereby further order, That in caſe of Cutters, Schooners, and other armed Veſſels commanded by Lieutenants, the Share of ſuch Lieutenants ſhall be Three Eighth Parts of the Prize, unleſs ſuch Lieutenants ſhall be under the Command of a Flag Officer or Officers; in which Caſe the Flag Officer or Officers ſhall have One of the ſaid Three Eighths, to be divided among ſuch Flag Officer or Officers, in the Manner herein before directed, in the Caſe of Captains ſerving under Flag Officers. Secondly, We direct that the Share of the Maſter, or other Perſon acting as Second in Command, and the Pilot, (if there happens to be One on Board,) ſhall be One Eighth Part, to be divided into Three equal Parts, of which Two Thirds ſhall go to the Maſter or other Perſon acting as Second in Command, and the remaining One Third to the Pilot; but if there is no Pilot, then ſuch Eighth Part to go wholly to the Maſter or Perſon acting as Second in Command. That the Share of the Chirurgeon, or Chirurgeon's Mate (where there is no Chirurgeon,) Midſhipmen, and Clerk and Steward, ſhall be One Eighth; that the Share of the Boatſwain's, Gunner's, and Carpenter's Mates, Yeomen of the Sheets, Sailmaker, Quarter-Maſter, and Quarter-Maſter's Mate, ſhall be One Eighth; and the Share of the Seamen, Marines, and other Perſons on Board, aſſiſting in the Capture, ſhall be Two Eighth Parts. But it is Our Intention, nevertheleſs, that the above Diſtribution ſhall only extend to ſuch Captures as ſhall be made by any Cutter, Schooner, or Armed Veſſel, without any of His Majeſty's Ships or Veſſels of War being preſent or within Sight of, and adding to the Encouragement of the Captors, and Terror of the Enemy: But in caſe any of His Majeſty's Ships or Veſſels of War ſhall be preſent, or in Sight, that then the Officers, Pilots, Petty Officers, and Men on Board ſuch Cutters and Schooners, or Armed Veſſels, ſhall ſhare in the ſame Proportion as is allowed to Perſons of the like Rank and Denomination on Board His Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels of War.

Produce

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-fifth Day of November, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-five, and in the Thirty-ſixth Year of Our Reign.

GOD ſave the KING.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 2d of December, 1795,

PRESENT,

The KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majeſty's Order in Council of the 3d of June laſt, for prohibiting the Exportation out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coaſtwiſe, Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the 7th Day of this inſtant December: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majeſty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the ſaid Prohibition ſhould be continued for ſome Time longer; His Majeſty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever (except the Maſter-General of the Ordnance for His Majeſty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the ſaid 7th Day of this inſtant December, preſume to tranſport, into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coaſtwiſe, any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ſhip or lade any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Veſſel, in order to tranſporting the ſame into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the ſame Coaſtwiſe, without Leave or Permiſſion in that Behalf firſt obtained from His Majeſty, or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and ſuffering the reſpective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act paſſed in the Twenty-ninth Year of His late Majeſty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to impower His Majeſty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt-Petre, and to enforce "the Law for impowering His Majeſty to prohibit "the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of "Arms or Ammunition; and alſo to empower His "Majeſty to reſtrain the carrying Coaſtwiſe of Salt-"Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Am-"munition:" — And the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, the Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Maſter-General of the Ordnance, and His Majeſty's Secretary at War, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein as to them may reſpectively appertain. Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 2d of December, 1795.

PRESENT,

The KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majeſty's Order in Council of the 10th Day of June, 1795, prohibiting the tranſporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom any of the Wood called Lignum Vitæ, will expire on the 10th Day of this inſtant December: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majeſty's Service that the ſaid Prohibition ſhould be continued for ſome Time longer; His Majeſty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Perſon or Perſons whoſoever do, at any Time, for the Space of Six Months from the ſaid 10th Day of this inſtant December, export, or attempt to export, tranſport, carry or convey, or lade or lay on Board of any Ship, Veſſel or Boat, in order to be exported, tranſported, carried or conveyed out of this Kingdom, any of the Wood called Lignum Vitæ, without Leave or Permiſſion being firſt had and obtained from His Majeſty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act paſſed in the Thirty-fourth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for indemniſying "all Perſons who have been concerned in adviſing "or carrying into Execution an Order of the Lords "Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury reſpect-"ing the Exportation of Pot-Aſhes or Pearl-Aſhes; "for preventing Suits in conſequence of the ſame; "for authorizing His Majeſty to prohibit the Ex-"portation or carrying Coaſtwiſe of Pot-Aſhes or "Pearl-Aſhes, and for making further Proviſions "relative thereto." But it is nevertheleſs His Majeſty's Pleaſure, that nothing herein contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to prevent any Ship or Veſſel from taking or having on Board any of the ſaid Wood called Lignum Vitæ, which may be neceſſary for the Uſe of the ſaid Ship or Veſſel during the Courſe of her intended Voyage; nor to prevent the Exportation of the ſaid Wood called Lignum Vitæ to Ireland, or to His Majeſty's Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or to His Majeſty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the Weſt Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majeſty's Forts and Settlements on the Coaſt of Africa, or to the Iſland of St. Helena, or to the Britiſh Settlements or Factories in the Eaſt Indies; provided that, upon the Exportation of the ſaid Wood called Lignum Vitæ to Ireland, or to His Majeſty's Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or to His Majeſty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the Weſt Indies, or to the Iſland of Newfoundland, or to His Majeſty's Forts and Settlements on the Coaſt of Africa, or to the Iſland of St. Helena, or the Britiſh Settlements or Factories in the Eaſt Indies, the Exporters of the ſaid Wood called Lignum Vitæ do firſt make Oath of the true Deſtination of the ſame to the Places for which it ſhall be entered Outwards, before the

Barry

Entry of the ſame ſhall be made, and do give full and ſufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms, to carry the ſaid Wood called Lignum Vitæ to the Places for which it is ſo entered Outwards, and none other; and ſuch Bond ſhall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made, to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Commiſſioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, and ſpecified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in ſuch Form and Manner as ſhall be directed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, ſhewing that the ſaid Wood called Lignum Vitæ has been duly landed at the Places for which it was entered Outwards.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, the Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein, as to them may reſpectively appertain.

Weſtminſter, December 1.

THIS Day the Lords being met, a Meſſage was ſent to the Honourable Houſe of Commons by Mr. Quarme, the Yeoman Uſher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorized by virtue of His Majeſty's Commiſſion for declaring His Royal Aſſent to ſeveral Acts agreed upon by both Houſes, do deſire the immediate Attendance of this Honourable Houſe in the Houſe of Peers, to hear the Commiſſion read; and the Commons being come thither, the ſaid Commiſſion, impowering the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and ſeveral other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Aſſent to the ſaid Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Aſſent given to

An Act to prohibit, for a limited Time, the making of Starch, Hair-Powder, and Blue, from Wheat and other Articles of Food; and for lowering the Duties on the Importation of Starch and other Articles mde thereof.

An Act to prohibit the Exportation of Candles, Tallow, and Soap, for a limited Time.

St. James's, December 5.

THE following Addreſs of the Chancellor, Maſters and Scholars of the Univerſity of Cambridge, has been preſented to the King by the Rev. Dr. Douglas, Vice-Chancellor, accompanied by the Right Hon. William Pitt, High Steward, and one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Univerſity, his Grace the Duke of Rutland, and ſeveral others of the Nobility, who are Members of the ſame; the Caput, viz. the Rev. R. Farmer, D. D. Dr. Joſeph Jowett, Regius Profeſſor of Law, Sir Iſaac Pennington, Regius Profeſſor of Phyſic, J. Burrell, M. A. and W. Hendry, M. A.; William Outram, M. A. J. Bridge, M. A. George Borlaſe, B. D. Regiſtrary, and John Beverley, M. A. Senior Eſquire Beadle, Delegates from the Univerſity, being introduced to the King by the Marqui of Saliſbury, Lord Chamberlain; which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Chancellor, Maſters and Scholars of the Univerſity of Cambridge, in full Senate aſſembled, think it our Duty to approach your Throne with the warmeſt Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection, to expreſs our extreme Concern and Indignation at the late outrageous Attempt againſt the Life of a Sovereign, whoſe Virtues might diſarm even Malice itſelf.

Deeply ſenſible as we are that the many Bleſſings we enjoy are owing to your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government, and that the Happineſs of theſe Realms is cloſely connected with the Security of your auguſt Perſon, we beg Leave to offer our ſincereſt Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Deliverance from the moſt traiterous Deſign which the moſt abandoned of Men could deviſe.

In this Deliverance we acknowledge, with Hearts full of Gratitude, the Mercies of a gracious overruling Providence; and we ſervently implore the Continuance of that Divine Protection, which has hitherto guarded and preſerved your ſacred Perſon from all the Dangers of theſe diſaſtrous Times.

We truſt in God that the deſperate Aſſault, which is now to us the Subject of equal Grief and Abhorrence, will ſtrengthen in the Minds of all the Obligations of Duty and Allegiance; and we feel it peculiarly incumbent upon us to aſſure your Majeſty, that it will animate our Endeavours to guard againſt the Growth of evil Principles, to enforce Obedience to the Laws, and inculcate that Reverence for Authority, which is the Baſis of all Order and good Government.

Sealed with our Seal, this Fourteenth Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer:

I Thank you for this very dutiful and loyal Addreſs, and for the cordial Expreſſions of your Attachment to My Perſon and Government.

The Proofs I have received on this Occaſion of the Loyalty and Affection of My People have afforded Me the moſt ſenſible Gratification. The daring Outrage which has been committed demands My Attention principally as it affects the Laws and Conſtitution; for the Maintenance of which you may always depend upon My utmoſt Exertions.

St. James's, December 5.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Archbiſhop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitical Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy

Clergy of the Dioceſe of Canterbury, impreſſed with the deepeſt Senſe of Gratitude to Almighty God, in whoſe Hands are the Iſſues of Life, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our moſt ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from the late daring Outrages of flagitious and deſperate Men againſt your Royal Perſon, and the Honour and Dignity of your Crown.

We cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Horror and Indignation at an Attempt ſo atrocious. We recognize in it the malignant Character and Effects of thoſe deteſtable Principles, which are the Scourge and Diſgrace of the Age we live in, and which have been diſſeminated amongſt your Majeſty's Subjects, unhappily with too much Succeſs, by ill-deſigning Men.

It is the natural Tendency of ſuch Principles to create Diſaffection againſt a Life which has uniformly been devoted to the beſt Intereſts of a civil Government, placed in a juſt Medium, unexampled among the Nations of the World, between the Extremes of deſpotic Power and popular Licentiouſneſs, and including in it the Security of Life, of Freedom, of Property, of Religion, of every Thing that is dear to Man.

We are ſenſible that the Wickedneſs which we deplore is confined to a ſmall Number of Perſons; and we truſt in God that the reſtleſs Endeavours of Sedition can never proſper in a Country bleſſed with ſuch a Conſtitution, and amongſt a grateful and loyal People, who know how to prize the Bleſſings which they enjoy from it. We ſhould be as much wanting in our Affection to our Country, as in our Duty to your Majeſty, if we did not earneſtly pray for a long Continuance of your Majeſty's Reign over us, and that you may long ſee the good Effects of your mild, juſt and conſcientious Adminiſtration of a legal Government.

May God's good Providence preſerve your Majeſty; and may the Influence of his Holy Spirit aid and direct you in your Exertions to employ the Powers entruſted to you for the Security and Happineſs of your People.

[Preſented by his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop of Lichfield and Coventry, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Lichfield, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Lichfield and Coventry.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop of Lichfield and Coventry, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Lichfield, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Lichfield and Coventry, beg Leave to expreſs the deep Affliction that we have experienced, in conſequence of thoſe daring Outrages which have lately taken Place, to the actual Danger of your Majeſty's Perſon.

The Safety of that Perſon we know to have been always Matter of anxious Concern to all your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, and we lament that the eminent Diſplay of your Majeſty's public and private Virtues ſhould not have prevented ſuch Inſults and Attempts, as have filled the Mind of every Well-wiſher to this Country with Grief and Apprehenſion.

We are, we truſt, duly thankful, that the good Providence of God protected your Majeſty in the Hour of Tumult and Danger; and it is our fervent Prayer, that the Almighty Diſpoſer of all Events may extend his Protection to your ſacred Perſon; that your Majeſty may long reign over a People, ſenſible of the Value of true Civil and Religious Liberty; and may thus continue to manifeſt to all the World the moſt mild and upright Adminiſtration of Executive Government under the Powers of that excellent Conſtitution which it is our Glory and our Happineſs to poſſeſs.

[Preſented by the Lord Biſhop of Lichfield and Coventry.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Preſident and Fellows of Sion College, within the City of London.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Preſident and Fellows of Sion College, (the Incorporated Clergy of the City of London) entertaining the higheſt Senſe of the ineſtimable Bleſſings derived to the People of theſe Kingdoms from that paternal Care and thoſe mild Virtues, which, during the whole of a long Reign, have uniformly diſtinguiſhed your Majeſty's perſonal Character and Conduct, we reflect upon the late outrageous Inſult offered to your ſacred Perſon, whilſt in the Exerciſe of that Part of your Royal Function ſo peculiarly grateful to the Feelings of Britons, not with more Horror than Aſtoniſhment: So that, in contemplating the Atrocity of the Offence, we are led to impute it, if not to the premeditated Deſign or immediate Inſtigation of a deep Confederacy, entered into by deſperate and evil-minded Men againſt the Peace, the unexampled Proſperity of this Realm, and the Permanency of it's unrivalled Conſtitution, at leaſt to the fatal Operation of thoſe Doctrines, ſubverſive of every Principle, religious, moral, and political, which have been for ſome Time paſt by every poſſible Means diſſeminated with incredible Induſtry and miſchievous Zeal among your Majeſty's Subjects, and which are evidently calculated to excite, concentrate, and call into Action the natural Reſtleſsneſs and worſt Paſſions of Mankind.

Under theſe Impreſſions, we have thought it our indiſpenſable Duty, in common with the great Body of our Fellow Subjects, to come forward, in order to teſtify, in the moſt unequivocal Terms, our unfeigned and ſteady Attachment to the Conſtitution of our Country as by Law eſtabliſhed, and our ſincereſt and warmeſt Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the daring Aſſaults of thoſe traiterous and deluded Perſons.

We have already returned our humble and hearty Thanks to Almighty God, the Sovereign Diſpoſer of Events, for His manifeſt Interpoſition in the Preſervation of a Life ſo extremely neceſſary at this important Period to the quiet and uninterrupted Poſſeſſion of our Religion and Liberties. Nor as Miniſters of the Goſpel can we ever ceaſe to ſupplicate a long Continuance of His eſpecial Care and Favour to a gracious, revered and pious Sovereign; whoſe cordial and unremitted Study it has ever been, not only only to protect by every conſtitutional Exertion, but devoutly to attend upon the Offices of our moſt Holy Religion, and eminently to adorn it's Precepts by illuſtrious Example. Nor will we neglect in our reſpective Miniſtrations to inculcate, by every due Method and Argument in our Power, a profound Reverence and animated Love of God; an affectionate Allegiance to your Majeſty; a dutiful Obedience to the Civil Magiſtrate; and an ardent and inviolable Regard for a Conſtitution, under the wiſe Conſtruction and benign Influence of which all good Subjects and virtuous Citizens are enjoying a more extenſive and genuine Equality of Civil Rights, a more general Diffuſion of Happineſs and Proſperity than has or ever could have been experienced by any other Nation whoſe Hiſtory has reached our Times.

Given under our Seal this 1ſt Day of December, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

[Preſented by the Rev. Mr. Gilbank, Dean, and the Rev. Mr. Barton, Aſſiſtant.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Surrey.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Surrey, again approach the Throne, to lay before your Majeſty, with due Reverence, our Sentiments on a Subject deeply intereſting to all your People.

The Calamities of War, the Scourge of Nations! muſt ever be deplored by thoſe who cheriſh the Feelings of Humanity; but whilſt we are filled with Regret at the Events which have covered a great Part of Europe with Deſolation and Bloodſhed, we cannot be too thankful to the Divine Providence, which has ſo long ſheltered this Land from the hoſtile Sword.

It muſt afford true Conſolation to your Majeſty to reflect, that a War ſo diſtreſſing in it's Conſequences was not undertaken, on the Part of your Majeſty, upon Views of Conqueſt and Aggrandiſement, but, from the hoſtile Aggreſſions of your Enemies, was rendered neceſſary to the Preſervation of the Liberties, the Commerce, and the Independence of theſe Realms.

Your Majeſty has graciouſly expreſſed to your Parliament your Readineſs to enter into Negotiations for Peace upon ſuch Terms as may conſiſt with the future Security and Happineſs of your People. We implore the Diſpoſer of all Events to haſten that happy Period; and we truſt that the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, the Bravery of your Fleets and Armies, the decided Superiority of your Naval Forces, and, above all, that the Unanimity of your People (more firmly cemented by the late wicked Attempts to diſturb their internal Tranquillity) will enable your Majeſty to accompliſh and accelerate that deſirable Purpoſe.

[Preſented by Sir John Frederick, Bart.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Southampton, deeply ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's juſt, mild and equitable Government, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our ſincere and hearty Congratlations on your late providential Eſcape from an Attack on your ſacred Perſon, when about to exerciſe the moſt important Function of your Regal Authority.

We beg Leave at the ſame Time to expreſs the utmoſt Indignation at the Conduct of the infatuated Wretches who were the Promoters and Actors in the horrid Tranſaction which is the Occaſion of our now preſenting to your Majeſty this Mark of our Duty Reſpect and Attachment to your Majeſty, and which we intreat may at the ſame Time be conſidered as a Proof of our Veneration for the Conſtitution of this Kingdom, which has been ſo happily protected and preſerved by your Majeſty and your Anceſtors of the Brunſwick Line.

By Direction and on Behalf of the Meeting of the ſaid County, holden at the Caſtle of Wincheſter on Thurſday the 26th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

Wither Bramſton, Sheriff.

[Preſented by Wither Brampton, Eſq; High Sheriff, accompanied by Sir William Heathcote, Bart. and William Chute, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, Inhabitants of the County of Rutland, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with our moſt cordial Congratulations on the late Eſcape of your ſacred Perſon from the daring Aſſaults and Outrages of a Band of Ruffians and Traitors on your Paſſage to and from your Parliament.

With grateful Hearts we deſire to thank the Divine Providence, to whoſe matchleſs Care we are indebted for the Preſervation of a Life ſo dear to us, becauſe it has been ſo ſingularly uſeful and exemplary.

From Principles of unſhaken Loyalty we view with Indignation and Reſentment the Atrocity of the Attempt on your Royal Perſon: From Sentiments of Piety we contemplate with Horror and with Pity the Depravity of Minds who could lift up their Arms againſt the Sovereign, whoſe ſole Study has been the Welfare of his Subjects, and whoſe Actions have been uniformly directed to extend their Felicity.

But, in an Alarm ſo affecting to us and to all your Majeſty's attached Subjects, we ſhare with them in this great Conſolation, that while the Divine Providence has protected your ſacred Perſon amidſt ſuch imminent Danger, it has furniſhed to the World new Proofs of your Magnanimity, to your Subjects new Confidence in them, and to your Royal Mind new Aſſurances of their Affection, Attachment and Love.

Gilbert Pleatheote, High Sheriff.

[Preſented by the Right Hon. Lord Sherard and Colonel Edwards, Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Worceſter, anxious to expreſs our Horror and Indignation at the atrocious Attempt lately made againſt your Majeſty's

Royal

Royal Perſon, beg Leave to offer your Majeſty our ſincere and cordial Congratulations on your recent Deliverance from thoſe wicked and treaſonable Aſſaults. We are unfeignedly grateful to Divine Providence for the Preſervation of a Sovereign to whom we are equally bound by Duty, Affection and Intereſt; and we ſolemnly aſſure your Majeſty that we will, as much as in us lies, and at the Riſk of our Lives and Fortunes, if neceſſary, be vigilant in guarding againſt all ſuch Proceedings in future as may tend to diſturb your Majeſty's juſt Government and endanger our excellent Conſtitution.

William Waldron, Sheriff.

[Preſented by the Hon. Edward Foley and William Lygon, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County,]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Aldermen, Common Council and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Kidderminſter, in the County of Worceſter, in Common Hall aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with our ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Eſcape from the daring and wicked Attempts made on your Royal Perſon going to and from the Houſe of Lords, on your Majeſty's opening the preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

We cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Abhorrence and Indignation at ſuch atrocious and wicked Attempts by Miſcreants who would ſubvert all Order and Government, and whoſe Delight is in Anarchy and Confuſion.

We beg Leave to return your Majeſty our ſincere and hearty Thanks for your moſt gracious Proclamation for diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the Inſults and Attempts upon the Life of your Royal Perſon.

That your Majeſty and your illuſtrious Houſe may ever adorn the Throne of theſe Realms in Happineſs and Proſperity to yourſelves, and diſpenſing the ſame to a dutiful, grateful and free People, is the fervent Wiſh and Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Given under our Hands and Common Seal, the 19th Day of November, 1795.

[Preſented by the Hon. Edward Foley and William Lygon, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Worceſter.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy and others, Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bromſgrove, in the County of Worceſter, convened by public Advertiſement, at the Town Hall in Bromſgrove, on Tueſday the 17th Day of November, in the Thirty-ſixth Year of the Reign of His Majeſty King George the Third, and in the Year of our Lord 1795.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful Subjects, Inhabitants of the above Town and Neigbourhood, with Hearts replete with Loyalty and affectionate Attachment to your Perſon and Government, beg Leave thus publicly to expreſs our utter Abhorrence of the late Attack on your Majeſty's Perſon; an Attack atrocious in the higheſt Degree, unlawful, unprovoked, and unmerited.

Happy in the Enjoyment of the Bleſſings reſulting from our preſent excellent Conſtitution, under your Majeſty's benign Adminiſtration, we revere the Divine Providence that hath averted the Arrows of the Aſſaſſin, and protected the Father of his People from the malicious Attempts of wicked and unprincipled Men. We aſſure you, Sire, that we will at all Times (as far as in our Power) not only diſcountenance, but counteract the evil Machinations of the Deſperate and Diſaffected, no leſs the Enemies of their Country than their King. And we truſt that the Judgments awaiting the Perpetrators of the late daring Outrage will deter others from committing or abetting the like Exceſſes in future, and teach them to reverence thoſe Laws which adminiſter Juſtice to, and protect the Perſons and Properties of, all its Members, equally alike from the Prince to the Peaſant.

That our beloved Monarch may long reign in the Hearts of his faithful Subjects, and over theſe Realms in Peace and Happineſs, is the ſincere and hearty Prayer of, moſt gracious Sire, your loyal and affectionate Subjects and Servants.

[Preſented by the Honourable Edward Foley and William Lygon, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Worceſter.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, of the Town and Neighbourhood of Dudley, cannot refrain from expreſſing our Deteſtation of the late violent Outrage committed againſt your Royal Perſon, and of the Principles by which it was inſtigated: We beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your providential Eſcape, and are ſincerely thankful to the Supreme Diſpoſer of all Events for preſerving a Life ſo eſſential to the Welfare and Happineſs of theſe Realms: We entreat you, Sire, not to let the Diſaffection of a few diminiſh your paternal Confidence in the great Body of your Majeſty's faithful People, who muſt conſider this atrocious Attack on the Sovereign as an Attack on the Conſtitution of the Country, and which has ſerved but to ſtrengthen (if it were poſſible) their Veneration and Attachment to the beſt of Kings. We therefore ſolemnly pledge ourſelves to ſupport your Majeſty, at the Riſque of our Lives and Fortunes, againſt all illegal and ſeditious Attempts to ſubvert our preſent happy Form of Government.

[Preſented by the Hon. Edward Foley and William Lygon, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Worceſter.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Carnarvon, aſſembled in the Shire Hall at Carnarvon, on Thurſday the 26th Day of November, 1795.

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Carnarvon, beg Leave, at this important Criſis, to expreſs our ſincere Concern at the criminal and malignant Outrages lately attempted againſt your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, in the Exerciſe of one of your conſtitrtional Functions.

We beg Leave to expreſs our Abhorrence of ſuch diſloyal and ſeditious Attempts upon your Majeſty and your Government, and of the Principles and Motives which gave Riſe to them.

We have contemplated with infinite Grief the alarming Progreſs of Deſigns for deſtroying and undermining the fundamental Principles of our Religion, of our happy Conſtitution, and of all the Ties of ſocial Order and Virtue; and we ſincerely hope, that the extreme Lengths to which ill-diſpoſed or miſguided People have gone, will awaken all your Majeſty's loyal Subjects to a due Senſe of the Happineſs they now enjoy, and to a ſteady Determination to maintain the Conſtitution at the Riſk of their Lives and Fortunes.

We hope the happieſt and beſt Conſequences may ariſe from a Bill now under the Conſideration of your Parliament to ſtrengthen the Law againſt ſeditious Meetings of all Deſcriptions; for we have obſerved, with deep Regret, that the Mildneſs of the exiſting Laws has hitherto rather encouraged than ſuppreſſed the Efforts of thoſe who have on ſo many Occaſions of late manifeſted the ſtrongeſt and moſt enthuſiaſtic Bias to the Introduction of French Principles and Confuſion into this Country.

We thank Divine Providence for His gracious Interpoſition in preſerving a Life ſo juſtly dear to us and to all Europe, and we offer up our fervent Prayers, that Heaven may vouchſafe for many Years to continue the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's mild and beneficent Government.

Signed, by Order of the General County Meeting, Wm. Jones, Sheriff.

[Preſented by Sir Robert Williams, Bart. Repreſentative in Parliament for the ſaid County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Northampton.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Northampton, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our moſt ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from the late atrocious Attack on your Royal Perſon, at the Moment when your Majeſty was engaged in one of the moſt ſolemn and important Functions of the Sovereign of theſe Realms.

An Outrage of ſuch tranſcendent Enormity againſt the Perſon of our Monarch, under Circumſtances of ſuch unparalleled Aggravations, not only calls forth our utmoſt Indignation againſt thoſe who have planned or perpetrated ſo horrid a Crime, but muſt excite in our Minds the moſt alarming Apprehenſions from the Growth and Progreſs of that execrable Syſtem which aims at the Extirpation of Monarchy itſelf, which threatens to looſen all the Bands of civil Society, to ſubvert all legitimate Government, and to ſubject our Lives and Property to the lawleſs and ſavage Violence of popular Deſpotiſm.

We rely on the Wiſdom of the Legiſlature to check the Progreſs and avert the fatal Conſequences of thoſe nefarious Doctrines and Projects, and effectually to provide for thoſe moſt important Objects, the Security of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government and the preventing thoſe ſeditious Meetings and Aſſemblies, in which we trace the Source and Origin of every Danger which threatens your Majeſty and the Nation.

It is our fervent Prayer that, under the Protection of the Divine Providence, your Majeſty may triumph over all your foreign and domeſtic Enemies, and that you may long continue to diſpenſe to a loyal, affectionate and grateful People the Bleſſings which we experience under your mild and equitable Adminiſtration of thoſe Powers which are veſted in the Crown, as an eſſential and vital Part of our free and happy Conſtitution.

[Preſented by Thomas Powys and Francis Dickins, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff, Burgeſſes and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Daventre, in the County of Northampton.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Burgeſſes and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Daventre, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majeſty with Sentiments of the higheſt Veneration for and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

We feel the greateſt Indignation at the Violence and Inſult offered to your Majeſty in your Paſſage to and from your Parliament; and the utmoſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the Principles of all Clubs and Societies of wicked and deſigning Men, who, unmindful of the Advantages which all your Subjects enjoy under your Majeſty's mild Adminiſtration and Government, are endeavouring by all Means tn their Power to ſubvert the Conſtitution of this Country.

We congratulate your Majeſty upon your Eſcape from the Danger which threatened your Royal Perſon; and we aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall, at all Times, and upon all Occcaſions, be zealous in proving (not in Words only) our Fidelity and Affection to your Majeſty, and our inviolable Attachment to the Conſtitution of our Country.

[Preſented by Thomas Powys and Francis Dickins, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of Glouceſter and its Vicinity, humbly preſent unto your Majeſty our moſt ſincere and ardent Congratulations on your providential Deliverance from the late unnatural Outrage offered to your Perſon and Government.

We beg Leave to expreſs our deepeſt Regret that there ſhould exiſt among your Majeſty's Subjects a Set of Men ſo unthankful for the Bleſſings of a Reign peculiarly diſtinguiſhed for its Mildneſs and Equity, and ſo daringly hoſtile to the deareſt Intereſts of their Country, as to be capable attempting, through this atrocious Act of Treaſon, the Subverſion of the moſt perfect Syſtem of Civil Liberty that ever was framed for the Benefit of Mankind:

kind: We feel, however, a peculiar Satisfaction at this momentous Criſis in conſidering the unbounded Declarations of Loyalty and Affection made by your Majeſty's Subjects, as an auſpicious Demonſtration of their firm Purpoſe to unite in the Defence of juſt and legal Authority, the only Security of our Lives, Liberty and Property; and we truſt that the laudable Spirit, ſo generally manifeſted in this Kingdom, will decidedly prevail over the ferocious Efforts of thoſe infatuated Perſons, whoſe chief Grievance ſeems to be the ſalutary Reſtraint impoſed upon the Licentiouſneſs and Turbulence of unprincipled Individuals.

At the ſame Time we reſt in the aſſured Expectation that, as the Prevention of Practices which threaten the Exiſtence of our moſt excellent Conſtitution, is the wiſeſt Conduct of Government, and the Exceſſes of the preſent Time loudly call for vigorous Reſtraints, ſuch Regulations will be adopted, without Delay, as may give Energy to the Civil Power, and inveſt it with thoſe conſtitutional Means which will effectually check the growing Evils of Diſaffection and Sedition, and protect the Welfare of the whole againſt the miſchievous Machinations of the few.

Fully ſenſible how much the Peace and Order of Society depend upon your Majeſty's Safety, the Guardian of its Rights and Intereſts, we implore the Almighty to continue his watchful Care over your ſacred Perſon, and long to preſerve your Majeſty a Bleſſing to an affectionate and loyal People.

[Preſented by John Pitt, Eſq; and Major Howard, Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Portreeve, Bailiff, and Principal Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Honiton.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WERE it poſſible that the outrageous Violation of Public Order, which hath lately taken Place in your Majeſty's Royal Preſence, could fail to excite our Indignation, or the imminent Danger to which your Majeſty's ſacred Life was then expoſed, to fill our Minds with the utmoſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence, we ſhould be deficient in our Duty to the beſt of Kings; we ſhould be wanting in Gratitude to the Father of his People; and we ſhould conceive ourſelves to diſgrace the Character of Britons.

With the pureſt Satisfaction do we congrtulate your Majeſty, on your Majeſty's narrow Eſcape from the perfidious Deſigns of vile Aſſaſſins!—With the moſt devout Emotions do we offer up our Praiſes and Thankſgivings to the Great Creator of the Univerſe, whoſe Omnipotence ſhielded your Majeſty from the deadly Aim of baſe and deſperate Traitors.

Whilſt we expreſs our deepeſt Concern that there ſhould have been in human Nature any depraved enough to contemplate or attempt ſo black and horrible a Deed, and our ſincereſt Wiſh that it's Authors, Aiders and Abettors may be brought to condign Puniſhment, we again preſume humbly to approach your Majeſty with the warmeſt Aſſurances of our inviolable and unalterable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government. We are fully ſenſible that your Majeſty ever participates in the Diſtreſſes of your faithful People. We are truly thankful for your Majeſty's anxious Solicitude and paternal Care to alleviate our preſent Wants; and we rely with Chearfulneſs on your Majeſty's Exertions to relieve us from every Difficulty.

We are, may it pleaſe your Majeſty, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects.

[Preſented by Sir George Yonge, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Petition of the Portreeve, Bailiff and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Honiton in the County of Devon.

SIRE,

AFTER having ſo lately expreſſed to your Majeſty our Indignation and Abhorrence of the late moſt atrocious Outrages and treaſonable Inſults offered to your ſacred Perſon, we ſhould not again have preſumed to approach your Royal Preſence had we not found, from Information, that the baneful Influence of the Societies, which have been eſtabliſhed in ſeveral Parts of this Kingdom, exciting in the Minds of People Diſcontent and Sedition, where Peace and Loyalty had before reſided, has reached our before united Town, and that the Friends of theſe Societies have been ſecretly and partially handing from Door to Door, amongſt particular Claſſes of the Inhabitants, a Paper, purporting to be a Petition to your Majeſty, praying an abrupt and immediate Concluſion to the War, in which, from Neceſſity, this Nation is involved, and your Majeſty's Interference againſt paſſing the Bills now pending in Parliament, for enſuring the Safety of your Royal Perſon and the preventing ſeditsous Aſſemblies, with a Deſign of impoſing it on your Majeſty as the Petition of the Principal Inhabitants of this loyal Town, and, with an Audacity equal to the Darkneſs of their Views, refuſing it's Production to your Petitioners, when convened by public Notice by the chief Officer of this Borough for the Purpoſe of taking it into Conſideration.

Though we equally wiſh, with thoſe Petitioners, to ſee the Bleſſings of Peace eſtabliſhed, we are fully convinced that the Means moſt conducive to the Glory and Welfare of this Nation, moſt compatible with our trueſt Intereſts, and moſt likely to enſure to us an honorable, firm and permanent Peace, are the vigorous Meaſures now purſuing by your Majeſty; and we rely with the fulleſt Confidence that no Endeavour of your Majeſty will be wanting to bring about ſo deſirable an Event,

At the ſame Time feeling, as we do, that the late Outrages on your Majeſty's Perſon can only be attributed to theſe Seminaries of Sedition, we moſt humbly entreat your Majeſty will, by your Royal Aſſent, render effectual the Bills now pending for their Suppreſſion.

And your Petitioners, as in Duty bound, will ever pray, &c.

[Preſented by the Right Hon. Sir George Yonge, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Manufacturers and Inhabitants of the Staffordſhire Potteries.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Manufacturers and Inhabitants of the Staffordſhire Potteries, humbly beg Leave, amidſt the the general Voice, to offer to your Majeſty our ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Eſcape from the daring and flagitious Attack lately made on your Majeſty's Perſon, in paſſing to the Houſe of Peers.

Impreſſed with a juſt and grateful Senſe of the invaluable Bleſſings which we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, and animated by a ſteady and zealous Attachment to your Royal Perſon, we cannot but regard with mingled Indignation and Abhorrence ſo atrocious an Outrage; and we deeply lament that any one could be found ſo miſguided in Principle, ſo regardleſs of the public Welfare, and ſo inſenſible to your Majeſty's Virtues, as to be guilty of a Violence incompatible with all ſocial Order, ſubverſive of all conſtitutional Security, and diſgraceful to the national Character.

Whilſt we ardently pray that your Majeſty's Reign may long continue, a Bleſſing to your People and a Source of uninterrupted Felicity to your Majeſty, permit us, Sire, to add our firm Aſſurance that we ſhall on all Occaſions be ready to exert our moſt ſtrenuous Endeavours in Defence of your Majeſty's Perſon, and in Support of that excellent Form of Government under which it is our Pride and Happineſs to live.

[Preſented by Earl Gower and Sir Edward Littleton, Bart. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County, accompanied by the Hon. Colonel Monckton, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the Town of Stafford.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes, Aſſiſtants, Town Clerk and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Wareham, in the County of Dorſet.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes, Aſſiſtants, Town Clerk and Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal Town and Borough of Wareham, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our ſincere and dutiful Sentiments of Reſpect, Attachment and Loyalty; and to expreſs our unanimous Indignation at the late daring and criminal Inſult offered to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, whilſt your Majeſty was in the Exerciſe of one of the conſtitutional Duties of the Crown, in your Paſſage to and from Parliament.

Permit us, Sire, to acknowledge your Majeſty's paternal Goodneſs in the Regard your Majeſty has ſhewn for the Welfare and Happineſs of your People, in your Majeſty's gracious Intention to give full and ſpeedy Effect to a Negotiation for a ſafe and honourable Peace.

May the great Diſpoſer of Events beſtow a Bleſſing on your Majeſty's Endeavours to effect that deſirable End, and long preſerve your Majeſty's Perſon and Family in perfect Security and Happineſs.

[Preſented by the Right Hon. Lord Robert Spencer.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Arundel in the County of Suſſex, beg Leave to expreſs to your Majeſty our Abhorrence of the Outrages offered to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, when going to and returning from your Parliament, and to aſſure your Majeſty of our unalterable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government. We truſt the Authors of Outrages ſo diſgraceful to the Character of Men and Britons will be made to feel the utmoſt Severity of the offended Laws; and we pray that your Majeſty's Life will be long preſerved, and that your Reign may be happy and proſperous over a grateful and free People.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed the Common Seal to be hereunto affixed this 20th Day of November, 1795.

[Preſented by Sir George Thomas, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Chriſtchurch, and the Inhabitants of the Neighbourhood thereof.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Chriſtchurch, and the Inhabitants of the Neighbourhood thereof, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our ſincere and hearty Congratulations on the Eſcape your Majeſty moſt providentially had from the late daring and deteſtable Outrage when your Majeſty was about to execute the moſt important Function of your Royal Authority.

We are anxiouſly deſirous at the ſame Time of expreſſing our juſt Indignation and Abhorrence of all Proceedings which have a Tendency to ſtir up the Minds of any Part of your Majeſty's Subjects to Acts of Violence againſt your ſacred Perſon, or to endeavour to undermine and deſtroy our happy Conſtitution.

[Preſented by George Roſe, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Maſter, Wardens, and Court of Aſſiſtants of the Society of Apothecaries of your City of London, with all Humility, and with the warmeſt Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, and moſt ſincerely to congratulate your Majeſty, and the Country in general, on your late providential Deliverance from a moſt traiterous and nefarious Attack againſt your Royal Perſon.

We embrace this Opportunity of expreſſing, in the ſtrongeſt Manner we are able, though in Words by no Means adequate to what we feel in our Hearts, our Loyalty for your Perſon, and true and dutiful Affection to yourſelf and Family. We moſt ſincerely lament that there ſhould exiſt in this Country Perſons capable of harbouring in their Minds Deſigns ſo atrocious and diabolical. We hope that the National Honour, which hath been ſo highly inſulted by this moſt violent Attack on your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, will be vindicated, by the exemplary Puniſhment of ſuch daring Offenders. The Safety of your Majeſty, and the Security of the Conſtitution, are inſeparable; and we moſt humbly pray, that your Life, which was ever dear, but at no Time more eſſentially ſo than at preſent to the Public Welfare, may be a Life of Health, Happineſs and long Continuance; and that your Royal Perſon ſon and Family may be long protected by the ſame good Providence in the Courſe you have ſo ſteadily purſued for the Happineſs and Proſperity of your People.

Rob. Cooke, Clerk.

[Preſented by John Devaynes, Maſter, and William Fowle and John Bradney, Wardens.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardneſs, humbly beg Permiſſion to expreſs to your Majeſty our great Concern at the late Attempt made to endanger your Life, as well as the violent Outrages committed near your Royal Perſon.

And we moſt ſincerely congratulate your Majeſty on having ſo providentially eſcaped from Injury to your Royal Perſon, and rejoice at the Preſervation of a Life ſo truly valuable, and ſo inſeparably connected with the common Welfare of the Kingdom.

It is alſo with the greateſt Satisfaction we learn, that your Majeſty, in Conjunction with the Legiſlature, is taking ſuch Meaſures to ſecure your Royal Perſon from future Inſults, as well as to ſuppreſs thoſe unlawful Aſſemblies and Seminaries of Anarchy which have given Riſe to ſuch Outrages.

At the ſame Time permit us, Sire, humbly to aſſure your Majeſty of our unalterable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Family, to the happy Conſtitution of our Country, and of our firm Reſolution to ſupport them to the utmoſt of our Power.

Given at the Guildhall of our ſaid Borough, under our Common Seal, this 24th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795, by Order and on Behalf of the ſaid Bailiffs and Burgeſſes, Nich. Broking, Mayor.

[Preſented by the Right Hon. John Charles Villiers, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Heritors, and principal Farmers of the County of Caithneſs, met in General Quarter Seſſions.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Juſtices of the Peace, Heritors and principal Farmers of the County of Caithneſs, met in General Quarter Seſſions, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, and to expreſs our higheſt Indignation at the Inſults and Outrages which were directed againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, in paſſing to and from the Parliament Houſe upon the firſt Day of the preſent Seſſion.

While we offer our juſt Tribute of Congratulations to your Majeſty upon your happy Eſcape upon that Occaſion, we cannot help lamenting, that any of our Fellow Subjects, enjoying the Bleſſings and Privileges ſecured by the Conſtitution of theſe Realms to every Claſs of People, ſhould be ſo far loſt to a Senſe of Duty as to wound the Feelings of the beſt of Kings with Proceedings ſo tumultuous and indecorous as took Place at that Time. And we truſt that thoſe who were moſt active upon that Occaſion will be diſcovered and brought to condign Puniſhment.

It is our moſt ardent Wiſh, that your Majeſty may always overcome the evil Deſigns and Machinations of your Enemies, and that you may long live the beloved Sovereign of a free, a happy, and a grateful People.

Signed, in our Preſence, and by our Appointment, at Thurſo, this 16th Day of November, 1795, by CAITHNESS, Preſes.

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Juſtices of Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and other Landholders of the County of Aberdeen.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Juſtices of Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and other Landholders of the County of Aberdeen, humbly beg Leave to addreſs your Majeſty, and to expreſs our utmoſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence at the late tumultuous Proceedings of ſome deluded Men, who dared to carry their Outrage ſo far as to attempt Violence to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon; and we truſt to the Wiſdom of Parliament to diſcover and bring to Juſtice thoſe Enemies of our beloved King and happy Conſtitution.

With heartfelt Satisfaction we beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your late providential Eſcape, and implore the Supreme Ruler of the Univerſe to protect your Majeſty againſt all Aſſaults of wicked and deſigning Men, and to preſerve your Majeſty's valuable Life many Years to rule over this proſperous and happy Nation.

Signed, in our Preſence, and by our Appointment, at Aberdeen, the 25th Day of November, in the Year 1795, by

A. Hay, Preſes.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Town and County of Haverfordweſt.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Town and County aforeſaid, beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere and affectionate Congratulations on that late providential Interpoſition which delivered your Royal Perſon from the moſt daring and traiterous Aſſault, and, of conſequence, protected theſe Realms from the meditated Horrors of Anarchy and Confuſion.

Gratefully ſenſible as we are of the Bleſſings which, with our fellow Subject, we enjoy from your Majeſty's beneficent and parental Government, and equally ſenſible of the Neceſſity of preſerving, in it's free and conſtitutional Rights, every Branch of the State, we cannot contemplate with ſufficient Deteſtation the wicked Attempt of Men, who, by an Aſſault on your Majeſty when exerciſing the moſt ſacred Duty of the Crown, aimed a deadly Blow at the Conſtitution itſelf, and conſpired againſt the Happineſs of a whole People.

It is therefore with the deepeſt Sentiments of Gratitude we return Thanks to the Supreme Protector of your Majeſty and your People, and ſincerely pray, that, ſhielded by the ſame Arms, and aided by every loyal Subject, your Majeſty may long reign inviolate from every Attempt both of foreign and domeſtick Enemies.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Macclesfield, in the County of Cheſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Macclesfield, impreſſed with a due Senſe of the diſtinguiſhed Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government, cannot but expreſs our utmoſt Indignation and Abhorrence at the late daring and flagitious Outrage threatened to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon; for a Deliverance ſo truly providential, be pleaſed to accept our moſt ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations.

Convinced of your Majeſty's ever vigilant and paternal Solicitude for the true Intereſts of your People, we beg Leave to expreſs our warmeſt Thanks for your Majeſty's late Proclamation, aſſuring your Majeſty that we ſhall, by every Means in our Power, co-operate with your Majeſty's gracious Deſigns therein conveyed to us, by counteracting and endeavouring to ſuppreſs all ſeditious and treaſonable Publications, and unlawful Aſſemblies, calculated to miſlead and inflame the Minds of the Ignorant and Unwary, and render them diſaffected to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

That your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous, undiſturbed by the unprovoked Attacks of foreign Enemies, and preſerved from the inſidious Machinations of ſecret Foes, is the ſincere and ardent Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects.

[Preſented by the Right Hon. the Maſter of the Rolls.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal and Profeſſors of the Univerſity and King's College of Aberdeen.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty

GRACIOUSLY to accept the humble Congratulations of your Majeſty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal and Profeſſors of the Univerſity and King's College of Aberdeen, on your Majeſty's late providential Eſcape from a moſt alarming and atrocious Attack on your Royal Perſon.

Filled with Indignation and Horror that in a Nation like Britain, bleſſed with a Government free and lenient beyond any other on Earth, there ſhould have been found Men capable of ſo daring and flagitious an Attempt, we are at the ſame Time deeply impreſſed with Gratitude to the Supreme Diſpoſer of all for your Majeſty's happy Deliverance.

That the ſame gracious Providence may ſtill continue to watch over your ſacred Perſon, and that, under the Protection of the Almighty, your Majeſty may be long preſerved as the Guardian of our happy Conſtitution, and a Pattern of Virtue to a free, grateful and happy People, are the ſincere and fervent Prayers of

GORDON, Chancellor.
John Macpherſon, Rector.
Jo. Chalmers, Principal.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, Freemen and Principal Inhabitants of the ancient Town of Winchelſea, in the County of Suſſex.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, Freemen and Principal Inhabitants of the ancient Town of Winchelſea, beg Leave to offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's Eſcape from the late Outrage offered to your Royal Perſon in the Diſcharge of your public Duty.

In the Midſt of our juſt Concern and Indignation, we conſider this Attack as more immediately directed againſt our excellent Conſtitution than againſt the Perſon of your Majeſty, whoſe public and private Virtues are univerſally reſpected.

We hope that the Authors and Abettors of this atrocious Act may be ſpeedily known and puniſhed, and that, through the Favour of Divine Providence, your Majeſty may long continue to bleſs and protect, and to be bleſſed and protected by your faithful and loyal Subjects.

Signed, at the Guildhall of the ancient Town of Winchelſea, this 16th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Inhabitants of the Borough of King's Lynn in the County of Norfolk, at an Aſſembly held at the Guildhall there on Friday the 20th Day of November, 1795.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor and Inhabitants of the Borough of King's Lynn in the County of Norfolk, humbly repeat our ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of Loyalty to your Majeſty's Perſon, of Attachment to your Family, and of our utter Abhorrence of every Attempt to ſubvert or impair the Conſtitution.

Convinced that the Safety of the Sovereign and the general Intereſts of the People are inſeparably connected, we deeply lament the recent Outrages of a deluded Set of Men; and we cordially tender our warmeſt Congratulations on the Eſcape of your Majeſty from perſonal Injury.

Anxious to behold the Return of Tranquillity both at Home and Abroad, we obſerve, with grateful Satisfaction, your Majeſty's paternal Solicitude "to "give the fulleſt and ſpeedieſt Effect to a Nego- "tiation for a general Peace on juſt and ſuitable "Terms;" and we beg Leave to expreſs our fervent Wiſhes and Prayers, that, under the Divine Providence, Providence, the Crown of these Realms may rest with Ease and with Lustre on the Head of your Majesty and of your latest Posterity.

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Lincoln.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Lincoln, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the profoundest Sentiments of Respect and Attachment. We are anxious to express to your Majesty our Horror and Indignation at the daring Outrages lately offered to your Royal Person, at the Moment you were discharging one of the most solemn and important Duties of your high Situation, and to congratulate your Majesty upon your providential Escape from the Danger to which you were then exposed. Convinced that your Majesty's paternal Care is uniformly extended to every Description of your Subjects, we cannot but view these atrocious Acts of Violence with equal Surprize and Concern. Whilst we participate in the general Blessings of your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we are bound, as Ministers of the Gospel, to acknowledge the happy Influence of your Royal Example in Support of the great Interests of Religion and Virtue. We feel the warmest Gratitude to Almighty God for this recent and signal Instance of his accustomed Goodness to this Country, and we earnestly pray that the Supreme Disposer of all Events will be pleased to continue his gracious Favor to these Kingdoms by a long Preservation of your Majesty's invaluable Life.

[Presented by the Lord Bishop of Lincoln.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, the Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Salisbury, deeply impressed with indignant Horror at the late daring Attempts against your Royal Person, eagerly press forward to offer our most hearty Congratulations on your happy Preservation, by the merciful Care of Divine Providence, from the alarming Danger to which your precious Life was exposed, by so desperate an Effort of treasonable Violence. Though for a few Years past we have had but too just Cause to lament the mischievous Industry with which Principles of the most pernicious Tendency have been propagated throughout the Kingdom, it might have been expected that the Force of Loyalty, in the great Majority of good Subjects, would already have been sufficiently strong to defeat the Machinations of the turbulent and profligate Enemies of their Country, who, with an Activity that supplies their Want of Numbers, labour to subvert a Form of Government which insures to every Member of the Community as great a Share of Freedom as is consistent with social Order. But, when we now observe them, emboldened by Impunity, starting out from the dark Recesses of their seditious Meetings, and proceeding, with unexampled Insolence, to the most public Manifestation of their detestable Designs, it is high Time to unite all the Strength of the State, all the Authority of the Laws, and all the Weight of Individuals, in every Station and of every Profession, to repress the wild Infatuation. Those of our Profession, Ministers of holy Religion, are not only under peculiar Obligations to exert their best Endeavours, at so momentous a Crisis, but have peculiar Opportunities of exerting them to good Purpose. Permit us, therefore, humbly to convey to your Majesty our most sincere Assurances, that it shall be our constant, and, we trust, our effectual Study to guard the Minds of our Congregations against the Delusions employed by the Emissaries of Sedition, to cheat them out of their Happiness, and, by training them up to the Fear of God, to furnish them with the most powerful Motives to honour the King. To the diligent and conscientious Discharge of the Duties of our sacred Function in our public Instructions, so well calculated to produce the most important national Advantages, we shall never forget to add our earnest and devout Supplications to that great Being who governs all Things in Heaven and Earth, that He would vouchsafe the Continuance of his Protection to your Majesty from secret Conspiracy and open Violence; that he would preserve you, long to reign, endeared to the great Body of your People, not less by the Exercise of every private Virtue, than by an invariable Attention to the public Good; and that there never may be wanting a Succession of Sovereigns of your illustrious Family, who, emulous of your bright Example, may be the happy Instruments of Heaven in securing to our latest Posterity the invaluable Blessings of civil and religious Liberty, now compleatly enjoyed under the beneficial Influence of our Constitution in Church and State.

[Presented by the Lord Bishop of the said Diocese.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, humbly approach the Throne to offer our most sincere Congratulations on the providential Escape your Majesty has recently experienced, and to express our utmost Abhorrence of the daring Insult by which your Majesty's Life has been endangered, and the Laws established for the Safety of your sacred Person grosly violated.

We feel our Indignation increased by the Consideration that the atrocious Attempt, which Divine Providence hath graciously frustrated, was committed when your Majesty was in the actual Discharge of one of the most important Duties of your high Office, and against a beloved Sovereign, the whole Tenor of whose public Conduct has been devoted to the Welfare of his People, and whose private Character has displayed to them the brightest Example of Virtue and Goodness.

When such an Outrage is offered to such a Monarch we feel ourselves forcibly called upon to profess our firm and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, to profess our Determination to protect these invaluable Pledges of our Happiness and Prosperity against every Effort of Sedition and Violence, and to discriminate the Clamours and desperate Acts of a few from the general Sentiments and Conduct of your affectionate and faithful Subjects.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are fully sensible of the superior Blessings we enjoy under our our wiſe, free and approved Conſtitution, and of your Majeſty's mild and juſt Adminiſtration of the Laws; that we were never more deeply impreſſed with a Conviction of the Importance of your Majeſty's Life, nor ever more grateful for it's Preſervation.

It is our fervent Wiſh and Prayer that your Majeſty may long continue to reign on the Throne of theſe Kingdoms and in the Hearts of a loyal, faithful and united People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Miniſters of the Preſbytery of Brechin, in the County of Forfar.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters of the Preſbytery of Brechin, beg Leave with all Humility and Reſpect to approach your Majeſty's Throne, and to aſſure your Majeſty of our ſincere and inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family, and Government.

It was with the utmoſt Horror that we heard of the recent outrageous Inſult offered to your Majeſty's Perſon. We deteſt the Authors and the Principles which inſtigated them to ſo nefarious a Deed.

We beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your providential Eſcape, and return our grateful Acknowledgments to Almighty God for having preſerved your valuable Life, upon which the Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms ſo much depends.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that it ſhall be our conſtant Endeavour to inculcate upon the Minds of the People under our Care a Spirit of Loyalty to your Majeſty's Perſon, and of due Submiſſion to the Laws.

That your Majeſty may be preſerved from the inſidious Deſigns of wicked and deſperate Men; that you may long ſway with diſtinguiſhed Luſtre the Sceptre of theſe Realms, and after this Life enjoy a Crown that fadeth not away, are the fervent Prayers of, may it pleaſe your Majeſty, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters of the Preſbytery of Brechin.

Signed, in our Name, Preſence, and by Appointment.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Preſident, Vice-Preſidents, Treaſurer and Governors of the Scottiſh Corporation, do humbly approach the Throne to offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Eſcape from the daring and flagitious Attack lately made on your ſacred Perſon, while in the Execution of one of the moſt important Branches of the Conſtitutional Prerogative.

Impreſſed with a juſt Senſe of the Benefits we have hitherto enjoyed under our moſt excellent Conſtitution, and your Majeſty's juſt and mild Adminiſtration of the Laws, we will moſt fervently pray that Almighty God may long preſerve your Life, and ſecure to us a Continuation of the Bleſſings reſulting from that excellent Form of Government under which it is our Pride and Glory to live.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects forming the Volunteer Companies of Yeoman Infantry of the Towns of Kingſton and Richmond, in Surry, humbly preſume to offer our Tribute of Congratulation on your Majeſty's late providential Eſcape and Deliverance from the Hands of a violent Banditti of Aſſaſſins, in the Exerciſe of one of the moſt important of your Royal Functions, that of meeting your Parliament.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we view, with peculiar Horror and Deteſtation, the Inſults which have been offered to your Royal Perſon, and that we are determined, on all Occaſions, to exert our utmoſt Endeavours in Support of your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, and your illuſtrious Family, againſt all Enemies, moſt humbly adoring the Goodneſs of Almighty God in graciouſly reſcuing your Majeſty's Perſon from blood-thirſty Hands, and highly approving the Meaſures taken by the Legiſlature for the better Protection of your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, and for the more effectually preventing ſeditious Meetings and Aſſemblies, that ſerve only as an Introduction of French Principles. which every true Engliſhman muſt utterly abhor.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Council of the Burgh of Inverbervie.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Council of the Burgh of Inverbervie, ſenſible of the Bleſſings which we, in common with the Reſt of your Subjects, enjoy under your Majeſty's juſt and mild Government, beg Leave with the utmoſt Reverence and Reſpect to expreſs to our gracious Sovereign the Horror and Indignation which we feel at the daring and outrageous Aſſault which was made againſt your ſacred Perſon at the very Time when your Majeſty was performing your kingly Duty, and fulfilling your Part of an ineſtimable Conſtitution with which we are bleſſed. With the moſt humble Sentiments of Gratitude to the Supreme Diſpoſer of all Events, we congratulate your Majeſty on your Eſcape from a traitorous Attack, which tended both to deprive us of our beloved Sovereign, and to ſubvert our glorious and invaluable Conſtitution.

We alſo preſume moſt earneſtly to requeſt that every Exertion may be uſed to bring thoſe daring Miſcreants to condign Puniſhment, and that ſpeedy and effectual Meaſures may be deviſed to prevent ſuch horrible and atrocious Attempts for the future; and we aſſure your Majeſty that we are firmly determined by all the Means in our Power to diſcourage and prevent all ſeditious and unlawful Publications, and ſuppreſs ſuch abominable Practices or Aſſemblies, and to diſcountenance and diſcover the Authors thereof.

We alſo faithfully promiſe, when called upon, to come forward with Zeal in the Defence of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, and in the Support of your Government.

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Freeholders, Heretors, Juſtices of the Peace and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Dumbarton.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Freeholders, Heretors, Juſtices of the Peace and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Dumbarton, beg Leave at this Criſis to approach your Majeſty with renewed Aſſurances of inviolable Fidelity to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and unalterable Attachment to the Conſtitution and Government of theſe Kingdoms as eſtabliſhed in King, Lords and Commons.

The late daring Outrage committed, to the Danger of your Majeſty's Perſon, and to the Interruption of your Paſſage to and from Parliament, has filled our Minds with Horror! And we confidently truſt that the Authors and Perpetrators of that Outrage offered to your Majeſty will meet with their merited Puniſhment. We at the ſame Time anxiouſly hope that the Wiſdom of the Legiſlature may deviſe ſuch Means as will be preventive of the like Outrages in future.

That your Majeſty's mild Reign may be long and happy is our fervent Wiſh.

ELPHINSTONE, Preſes.

Dumbarton, November 21, 1795.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the ancient Borough of Ripon, in the County of York, in Common-Hall aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to offer our ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late malignant and atrocious Outrages committed againſt your Royal Perſon, in going and returning from opening the preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

We venerate the Laws of our happy Conſtitution, which ſecure to us, in common with all your Majeſty's Subjects, the higheſt Meaſure of civil Liberty, the Protection of our Perſons, the free Exerciſe of our Religion, and the peaceable Enjoyment of our Property; and we cannot behold with ſupine Indifference the inſidious and alarming Attempts of thoſe Enemies to their Country, who ſeek to inſtil into the Minds of the People of theſe Realms a Jealouſy of that Government which we are well convinced has no other End but the Happineſs of the Subject, and who, by raiſing up Shadows of Grievances, exiſting only in the viſionary Theory of wild Speculatiſts, under the Pretence of Reform, evidently aim at introducing a baneful Anarchy, in the Room of a Syſtem of Polity, the beſt and mildeſt that human Wiſdom ever could deviſe.

We rely with Confidence upon the Wiſdom of the Legiſlature for the Adoption of ſuch Meaſures as will in future moſt effectually protect your ſacred Perſon from ſuch daring Inſults, and preſerve publick Peace, Order, and good Government.

That your Majeſty may long continue to reign over a free and happy People, is the united Prayer of your faithful Subjects.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Volunteers and Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Ripon, beg Leave to offer our warmeſt Congratulations upon your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the malignant and wicked Attack made upon your ſacred Perſon on the firſt Day of the preſent Seſſion of Parliament, and to expreſs our Indignation and Abhorrence againſt the Authors of ſo daring an Outrage.

And we beg Leave moſt humbly to ſuggeſt our Hopes that your Majeſty, with the Advice of your Parliament, will adopt ſuch Meaſures as may moſt effectually preſerve your ſacred Perſon from future Inſults, and may be adequate to reſtrain the extreme and dangerous Licentiouſneſs of the Ill-diſpoſed.

That the Almighty may continue to your Majeſty his protecting Care, during a long and happy Reign, is the ſincere and ardent Prayer of your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects.

[Preſented by James Dawkins, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, and Major-General Goldſworthy, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Wilts.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Hythe, in the County of Kent, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our very ſincere Congratulations upon your providential Eſcape from the late atrocious Attackon your Royal Perſon in your Paſſage to and from Parliament.

We cannot ſufficiently expreſs the Indignation we feel at this Event, nor can we too fully declare our Sentiments, that ſuch an Outrage is alſo an Attack upon our Religion, our Laws and our Liberties.

That it may pleaſe the Almighty long to vouchſafe your Majeſty his gracious Protection, and continue you a bright Example of every public and private Virtue to a loyal and grateful People, is and will be our conſtant Prayer.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty, and under the Hands of us the Inhabitants, this 27th Day of November, 1795.

[Preſented by William Evelyn, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Town.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Steward, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Montgomery, in Common Hall aſſembled.

SIRE!

WE, the High Steward, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Montgomery, in Common Hall aſſembled, impreſſed with the deepeſt Concern at the atrocious Outrage recently offered to the Feelings ings and to the Conſtitution of Britons in the ſacred Perſon of your Majeſty, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, ſincerely truſting that the Perpetrators and Abettors of ſo horrid a Crime may be brought to that condign Puniſhment which the Heinouſneſs of their Guilt ſo flagrantly demands: And we firmly rely upon the Vigilance and Wiſdom of our conſtitutional Repreſentatives, in Parliament aſſembled, for adopting Meaſures completely adequate to the Support of the the Royal Dignity and Safety of the Conſtitution againſt the direct or indirect Attempts of unprincipled and ſeditious Demagogues, humbly imploring the Divine Providence long to continue us in the unparalleled Bleſſings we now enjoy under your Majeſty's mild, equitable and paternal Government; and that your Majeſty may long continue to reign on the Throne of theſe Kingdoms and in the Hearts of a loyal, brave and united People.

Given under our Common Seal, in Common Hall aforeſaid, the 26th Day of November, in the Thirty-ſixth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

[Preſented by Whitſhed Keene, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Maſters and Counſellors, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Totnes, in the County of Devon, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Preſence with the warmeſt Aſſurance of our moſt ſincere Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government, at the ſame Time expreſſing our moſt unfeigned Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late atrocious Attempt made on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, devoutly hoping that the Authors and Abettors thereof will ſpeedily be brought to condign Puniſhment; and it is our moſt ſincere Wiſh that your Majeſty may long enjoy a happy and proſperous Reign over a loyal and affectionate People.

[Preſented by the Marquis of Hertford.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Lewes, and adjoining Pariſhes of St. Thomas and Southover, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Royal Perſon to expreſs our Indignation at and Abhorrence of the late atrocious Inſult offered to your Royal Perſon whereſoever it may have originated. Grateful to your Majeſty for the Happineſs and Protection we have enjoyed under your paternal Government, we ſincerely lament that any Perſon ſhould be found capable of an Act ſo unworthy the Britiſh Name. Deeply impreſſed with humble Thankfulneſs and Gratitude to the great Supreme Diſpoſer of Events, that in his infinite Goodneſs hath been pleaſed hitherto to avert from this Country the Ravages and Horrors of War, we humbly implore your Majeſty that you will direct your Servants to open a ſpeedy Negotiation for Peace; and we confidently hope and truſt, under the Divine Bleſſing of the common Father of all the Families of the Earth, that your Exertions will lead to a laſting and honourable one. Gracious Sovereign, may you ſoon be enabled to accompliſh this momentous and deſirable Object, and thereby reſtore Tranquillity and Plenty throughout all your extenſive Dominions, and give additional Security and Luſtre to the Britiſh Throne. Such is the ardent Prayer of the loyal Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Lewes, and the ſaid two adjoining Pariſhes

In the Town Hall of Lewes, aſſembled by public Notice, the 27th of November, 1795.

[Preſented by Thomas Kemp, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

N. B. The Figures againſt which Aſteriſks are placed are the general Average Prices of all England.

Publiſhed by Authority of Parliament,

JOHN JAMES CATHERWOOD, Receiver of Corn Returns.

THE AVERAGE PRICE OF SUGAR,

Computed from the RETURNS made in the Week ending the 2d Day of December, 1795, is Sixty-ſeven Shillings and Five Pence Halfpenny

per HUNDRED WEIGHT,

Excluſive of the Duty of Cuſtoms paid or payable thereon, on the IMPORTATION thereof into GREAT BRITAIN.

By Authority of Parliament,

Grocers Hall,
December 5, 1795.

RICHARD WHALLEY BRIDGMAN,
Clerk of the Grocers Company.

Whitehall, November 20, 1795.

WHereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, that late on the Night of Thurſday the 12th Inſtant, or early in the Morning of Friday the 13th Inſtant, Two Guns, loaded with Slugs or other Pieces of Lead, were, by certain evil-minded Perſons, fired into a Bedchamber of the Dwelling-Houſe of —— Pyrke, Eſq; a Magiſtrate for the County of Glouceſter, ſituate at Littledean in the ſaid County, with Intent him the ſaid Mr. Pyrke to murder and kill; which ſaid Slugs or other Pieces of Lead paſſed cloſe to a Bed which was in the ſaid Chamber, and in which the ſaid Mr. Pyrke uſually ſleeps.

His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the above daring and cruel Act of Violence and Outrage, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one or more the ſaid Offenders, (except the Perſon or Perſons who actually ſo fired the ſaid Two Guns or either of them) who ſhall diſcover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo that any one or more of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, His Majeſty does hereby promiſe a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Perſon or Perſons (except as before excepted) who ſhall diſcover and apprehend, or cauſe to be diſcovered and apprehended, any one or more of the ſaid Offenders; to be paid by the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury upon Conviction.

A Further Reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Perſon diſcovering the Offender or Offenders, upon Conviction.

J. Pyrke.

And, in Addition to the above Two Rewards, a further Sum of FIFTY GUINEAS is depoſited and will be paid at the Bank of Meſſ. Niblett, Feudall, Evans and Jelf, in Glouceſter, on the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders,

Whitehall, November 24, 1795.

WHereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, that on the Afternoon of Saturday the 7th Inſtant, as John Sykes, a Soldier in the 3d Battalion of the 1ſt Regiment of Foot Guards, was paſſing through Thames-Street in the City of London to his Quarters in the Tower, he was, without any Provocation on his Part, violently aſſaulted by Three Men, who were unknown to him, and ſtabbed in his Right Leg, and cut acroſs the Calf thereof with ſome ſharp Inſtrument, of which ſaid Stab and Cut he now lies dangerouſly maimed and wounded; and that upon his endeavouring to ſeize the Man by whom he believed he was ſo wounded and cut, the others again aſſaulted him, and reſcued the Perſon whom he had ſo ſeized.

His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the above daring and and cruel Act of Violence and Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the said Offenders, (except the Person who actually gave the said Stab and Cut,) who shall discover his or their Accomplices, so that any one or more of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, for a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWENTY GUINEAS will be paid by the Agent of the said Regiment to any Person or Persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any one or more of the said Offenders, so as that he or they may be convicted thereof,
